

Master's Program in Constitutional and Administrative Law

Program Information

Specialization:

- Constitutional Law and Administrative Law
- Specialization Code: 8380101.02

Field of Study: Law

Degree Level: Master's

Degree Awarded: Master of Law

Institution: University of Law, Vietnam National University, Hanoi (VNU-UL)

Program Objectives

General Objective

The Research-Oriented Master's Program in Constitutional Law and Administrative Law aims to train graduates with in-depth knowledge, critical thinking, independent research capabilities, and professional qualities to identify, analyze, and address legal and policy issues in the fields of constitutional and administrative law, meeting the demands of national development and international integration.

Specific Objectives

Knowledge

- Provide in-depth, systematic, and up-to-date knowledge of the principles, theories, legal norms, and policies in Constitutional Law and Administrative Law.

- Develop the ability to analyze, evaluate, and compare models of state power organization, mechanisms for controlling state power, and mechanisms for protecting human rights.
- Develop critical thinking and the ability to propose legal solutions and policy reforms.

Skills

- Develop independent research skills, including formulating research questions, conducting literature reviews, and applying research methodologies.
- Enhance teamwork, academic communication, presentation, and professional problem-solving skills.
- Strengthen the ability to apply knowledge to law-making, law enforcement, and public policy-making.

Autonomy and Responsibility

- Develop strong political integrity, professional ethics, and a high sense of social responsibility.
- Foster respect for the rule of law, commitment to justice, and protection of human rights and community interests.
- Encourage lifelong learning and readiness to pursue further study at higher levels.

View the Detailed Program Curriculum Here