

Rally Celebrating International Women's Day, 8 March

On the morning of 5 March 2026, VNU University of Law held a rally celebrating International Women's Day, 8 March, in a lively and upbeat atmosphere. The event was attended by the University's Party Committee, Board of Management and members of the Trade Union.

In his remarks, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Trinh Tien Viet, on behalf of the University's male staff and lecturers, extended his best wishes to the University's female staff, lecturers and employees on the occasion of International Women's Day. He spoke about their contribution to the University's development and wished them good health, happiness and continued success in their work and personal lives.

Following the opening remarks, male members of the Trade Union presented gifts and songs to their female colleagues, along with words of thanks and best wishes for the occasion.