

Seminar “Strategies for IELTS and Legal English Mastery: Applications in Academic Study and Scientific Research”

Continuing our coverage of the seminar “Strategies for IELTS and Legal English Mastery: Applications in Academic Study and Scientific Research,” the Organizing Committee is pleased to introduce the seminar’s distinguished speakers:

□ Mr. Nguyễn Minh Đức, MA – IELTS Instructor at IELTS Mentor Center. With extensive teaching experience, Mr. Đức will provide in-depth insights into effective approaches to developing all four IELTS skills. He will also address common challenges faced by test takers and offer practical strategies to help students overcome them and achieve higher band scores.

□ Dr. Nguyễn Khắc Chính – Lecturer, Faculty of Private Law, VNU University of Law. As a lecturer who works closely with law students, Dr. Chính will focus on a highly practical topic: applying IELTS skills in the university environment. He will share practical approaches to applying academic skills developed through IELTS to specialized legal studies and scientific research, helping UL students build a strong foundation for their international academic and professional development.

In particular, with the support of IELTS Mentor Center, together with the participation of Ms. Đặng Phương Thảo and Mr. Nguyễn Khắc Chính, Secretary of the University Youth Union, the seminar promises to serve as a practical bridge for knowledge, inspiration, and guidance toward international development opportunities for students of VNU University of Law.

A knowledge-packed weekend morning full of valuable insights and opportunities awaits! Don’t forget to prepare your questions and bring them to the seminar for a chance to have them answered directly by our speakers!
