5. Other necessary information for applicants applying to VNU University of Law

5.1. First-year training location:

Study at Hoa Lac Urban Area; from the second year until graduation, study at: Xuan Thuy, Cau Giay, Hanoi.

5.2. Additional points:

- Applicants eligible for additional points and the level of additional points: As specified in Sections 2.2 and 2.4 of this document;
- Principle for awarding additional points: The total of additional points, bonus points, and incentive points (collectively referred to as additional points) for applicants with special achievements shall not exceed 10% of the maximum score of the admission scoring scale (maximum 03 points on a 30-point scale).

5.3. Criteria for allocation to majors and training programs for admission codes by major:

In 2025 (QH-2025 Cohort/K70), VNU University of Law enrolls students from the outset into 03 major codes and 04 training programs (Section 4), including 01 high-quality Law training program according to the criteria of Vietnam National University, Hanoi. The selection of majors/training programs and admission combinations is based on the following grounds:

- The implementation of admission shall ensure the principle of optimizing applicants' interests and expanding their opportunities for choice;
- Use of admission methods for all majors/training programs;
- The University uses 06 admission combinations for all majors/training programs. The selection of admission combinations is considered and assessed by the University to create opportunities for applicants from different regions, as well as to facilitate applicants in selecting examination subjects for the High School Graduation Examination and subjects for university admission that are appropriate to them.
- The majors/training programs have received interest from applicants and parents in recent years.

5.4. Other information:

a) Admission principles

- The University admits applicants (for each applicant) according to the level of priority from highest to lowest among the registered preferences (NV), with NV1 being the highest priority. Applicants may register an unlimited number of preferences by admission major and shall only be admitted to 01 (one) preference with the higher priority and shall not be considered for preferences with subsequent levels of priority.

- The University admits applicants by major code, taking scores from highest to lowest until the quota for each major is filled, without distinguishing the order of preferences among applicants (except for applicants with the same admission score at the end of the list, in which case the University shall use the preference order as a secondary criterion to select the applicant with the higher preference order).
- Admission scores are calculated on a 30-point scale and rounded to 2 decimal places.
- For admission based on the results of the High School Graduation Examination, for admission combinations containing a foreign language subject, VNU University of Law only uses the examination score from the 2025 High School Graduation Examination and does not use results of exemption from the foreign language examination under the Regulations on the High School Graduation Examination of the Ministry of Education and Training; examination scores retained from previous years' High School Graduation Examinations shall not be used for admission, and priority points shall not be awarded to applicants holding vocational certificates.
- Undergraduate admission quotas may be flexibly transferred among majors, ensuring that the total quota does not exceed the announced quota.

b) Additional requirements for the admission method combining an international English certificate:

For the admission method combining the 2025 High School Graduation Examination results with an international English certificate for admission (IELTS and TOEFL iBT), applicants must satisfy the following conditions:

- Applicants must have an IELTS English certificate of at least 5.5, a TOEFL iBT of at least 72, or equivalent international English certificates.
- The foreign language certificate must cover all 4 skills and the minimum score for each skill must be 5 points (on a 10-point scale), (equivalent conversion: a minimum of 4.5 for each IELTS skill and a minimum of 15 for each TOEFL iBT skill). Online – Home edition foreign language certificates shall not be accepted.

- Admission principle: Foreign language scores shall be converted in accordance with the regulations of Vietnam National University, Hanoi (See Appendix III), added to the scores of the other two subjects in the admission combination, and used as the admission condition according to the common plan of the Ministry of Education and Training.

c) Additional requirements for the High-quality Law training program (according to VNU criteria):

Applicants registering for admission to the High-quality Law training program must meet one of the following foreign language (English) requirements:

- The Foreign Language subject result in the 2025 High School Graduation Examination must be at least 5.0 points (on a 10-point scale);
- The average score of the Foreign Language (English) subject over 6 semesters of high school must be at least 7.0 points;
- Possess an international English certificate (IELTS, TOEFL) meeting the conditions for exemption from the Foreign Language examination for the recognition of high school graduation in accordance with the regulations of the Ministry of Education and Training.

d) Responsibilities of applicants

- Applicants registering preferences for admission to VNU University of Law must carefully study the University's Admission Information and comply with the regulations on eligibility, documents, procedures, and deadlines for submitting admission applications. Applicants must not register preferences for majors, training programs, or admission methods for which they do not meet the eligibility requirements.
- Applicants applying through other methods (excluding admission based on the results of the High School Graduation Examination) must carefully read and properly comply with Appendix IV (attached to this document).
- Fully declare and ensure the accuracy of all information in the admission application, particularly information on priority areas and priority groups (if any).
- During the admission process and while students are studying, the University shall conduct inspections and examinations of application documents (particularly documents supporting applicants' entitlement to priority policies) and applicants' admission scores. Applicants are responsible for the authenticity of the information registered on the admission portal of the Ministry of Education and Training and the University's admission portal. The University has the right to refuse admission or require withdrawal from the University if applicants fail to satisfy the admission conditions when the information is verified.

6. Admission organization

6.1. Admission plan and Admission Notice:

Based on the admission plan of the Ministry of Education and Training, VNU University of Law shall announce the specific Plan and Admission Notice on the website: <http://law.vnu.edu.vn>.

6.2. Time, location, and method of receiving applications:

The time, location, and method for receiving admission applications and conducting preliminary eligibility screening for Priority Admission under the Methods (excluding admission based on the results of the High School Graduation Examination): applicants shall view and follow Appendix IV of this document.

7. Priority policies in admission

The University applies priority policies in accordance with the current admission regulations by area and by category, specifically:

7.1. Priority by area (Appendix I of this document)

- The priority points applicable to Area 1 (KV1) are 0.75 points, Area 2 – Rural (KV2-NT) is 0.5 points, Area 2 (KV2) is 0.25 points, and Area 3 (KV3) receives no priority points;

7.2. Priority by policy category (Appendix II of this document)

- The priority points applicable to Priority Group 1 (including categories 01 to 04) are 2.0 points, and those applicable to Priority Group 2 (including categories 05 to 07) are 1.0 point.

7.3. Priority point levels:

The priority point levels specified above correspond to the total score of 3 subjects (in the subject combination used for admission) on a 10-point scale for each examination subject (without weighting); where an admission method uses a different scoring scale, the priority point level shall be converted equivalently.

7.4. Formula:

For applicants whose total score is 22.5 or higher (when converted to a 10-point scale and the maximum total score for 3 subjects is 30), the priority score shall be determined according to the following formula:

Priority score = [(30 - Total score obtained)/7.5] × Priority score specified in Sections 7.1 and 7.2.

7.5. Note:

Information on priority by area and category; documents and procedures for declaring and verifying information to receive priority by area and category, applicants may refer to Appendix V.

8. Admission fee:

Admission fee: In accordance with the regulations of the Ministry of Education and Training and current state regulations.

9. The training institution's implementation of commitments to applicants:

The University commits to resolving complaints in accordance with regulations;

protecting the legitimate rights and interests of applicants in cases of risks, and taking responsibility for resolving cases in which applicants are transferred to or from the University due to errors in admission (if any).
